No proof, no next story.

Within seven days of your story, show us our mark on your site. Until it is up, we publish nothing else of yours.

from your story to your next one

The mark stays on your site for as long as the story is online. A plain text link does not replace it.

Copy the accept all paragraph.

Put it at the end of your release. Fill in the two brackets; leave the rest as it is.

For accept all: when this story runs on acceptallmag.com, [Name] will place the accept all mark on [its website / the project page], linked to the story, will credit “accept all (acceptallmag.com)” wherever the coverage is shared, and will send proof to hello@acceptallmag.com.

three things to know

01

Sending is not publishing

We choose what runs, when and how, and we write back either way.

02

We keep the right to edit

For length and accuracy, and to decline what does not fit accept all.

03
